

S A R G E N T R I V I A

Vol. 1 192 Bishop St., New Haven, Conn., May 7, 1943. No. 1

Faith Sargent Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Sargent Lewis, was born at Grace Hospital, New Haven, on Monday, May 3d. She weighed 3 1/2 pounds. She started traveling almost at once and moved over to the New Haven Hospital. It just shows how full our hospitals are when they haven't even room for a 3 1/2 pound baby.

Josephine Tilney and son with four names (Timothy Bradford Sargent Tilney) are opening their house in Cheshire. Pa Tilney hopes to spend truncated week ends with them. Tim was born on January 29th and has nearly tripled in weight. These modern children move fast. He is reported to have recently punched his doctor's nose.

Agnes Sargent, in spite of Mr. Eastman, expects to visit New York the coming week-end. Perhaps Mr. Eastman would approve if he knew she was planning to visit the New York Hospital. She probably intends some laboratory first-aid practice.

Ziegler Sargent has sent his hat - his every-day-but-Sunday hat - to the cleaners. His hat is well known in New Haven.

Ziegler Sargent was "called" to Washington last week. It is reported that on his attorney's advice (who was with him) he rushed from the Internal Revenue building to the Union Station and took the first train home.

Emily and Abigail Lewis spent the last week-end at the publication office. They developed a strong aversion to the bath tubs at said office.

Agnes and Ziegler Sargent escorted Emily Lewis to the Yale-Harvard baseball game on Saturday, May 1st. The game started off well for Yale with a home run in the first inning with the bases full. At the beginning of the ninth inning Yale had a lead of 8 runs to 4, but a barrage of hits drove Cahill "to the showers". Harvard, after tying the game in the 9th, proceeded to win it in the 12th by a final score of 16 to 8, wild throwing around the infield letting in two of the three Harvard runs. The day was sunny but cold with a strong wind that made catching foul flies very difficult. Yale wound up the baseball season on May 5th with a 10 to 1 defeat at Princeton.

Rhoda Tilney of Pettibone Tavern fame expects to have an auction soon at the Pettibone.

Aunt Edith Woolsey is now in balance, having discharged the bandage on her left arm.

Lieutenant Colonel Ted Babbitt spent a recent week-end in town. He expects to go overseas soon. He seems to know what continent he is headed for.

Lieutenant Colonel Kerry Skerrett celebrated his birthday on May 5th. Many happy returns of the day.

S A R G E N T R I V I A

Vol. 1

192 Bishop St., New Haven, Conn., May 7, 1943

No. 1

Lieutenant Walter Camp of the Army Air Corps has been enjoying a few days leave in New Haven - he asked ye editor about the Sargent boys.

Private Lawton G. Sargent, Jr., who is in the Army Air Corps, has a long address: Squadron D, P. O. Box 133, College Training Detachment, Springfield College, Springfield, Mass.

Items suitable for publication in Sargentivia should reach the publication office prior to publication. Ziegler Sargent, Editor; Agnes W. B. Sargent, Assistant Editor.