

BULL-KINGSBURY.

WEDDING AT ST. JOHN'S CHURCH IN WATERBURY.

From the Waterbury (Conn.) American, June 10.

The marriage of Miss Mary E. Kingsbury, eldest daughter of the Hon. Frederick J. Kingsbury, to Dr. Charles Stedman Bull, of New-York, was celebrated at 11 o'clock this morning at St. John's Church. The social prominence of the family and their wide circle of acquaintances and friends in New-York, Philadelphia, Hartford, and other cities, made the event one of interest to an exceptionally large number. By the time of the entrance of the bridal party the church was completely filled throughout. The chancel had been elaborately and tastefully dressed with flowers. There were included potted plants and bridal wreaths, snow-balls, and other designs, those of honeysuckles and horse-chestnut blossoms being especially beautiful. The pulpit and lectern were bright with various designs of roses. The entrance of the bridal party was by the side door, the brides-maids—the Misses Kingsbury, sisters of the bride, Miss Alice Kingsbury, dressed in pink, and Miss Edith Kingsbury, in blue—coming first, followed by the bride, who was dressed in ivory-white satin, leaning upon the arm of her father, the six ushers last, who stationed themselves outside the railing near the pulpit. At the rail the party were met by Dr. Bull, the bridegroom, and his best man, Mr. Samuel P. Pope, of New-York, who had taken their station there some time before. These gentlemen, as well as the ushers, wore the ordinary morning dress. The impressive ceremony of the Episcopal Church was performed by Bishop Williams, assisted by the Rev. Prof. Russell and the Rev. R. R. Converse, Rector of the church. The more intimate relatives and friends, including the guests from out of town, afterward assembled at the house, where the wedding breakfast was served. The presents displayed were unusually numerous, beautiful, and costly. The bride and bridegroom left at 2 o'clock for the East in the Directors' car of the New-England Road, placed at their disposal by the courtesy of President Wilson. Among the guests from New-York were the Hon. and Mrs. H. J. Scudder, the Hon. Hewlett Scudder, Dr. Charles D. Scudder, Mr. Edward M. Scudder, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Scovill and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Caswell, Mrs. Cyrus Curtiss, Mrs. W. E. Curtiss, Mr. Paul Jenks, the Misses Garretson, Mrs. and Miss Wilmerding, Miss Louisa Evarts, the Misses McLean, Mr. Henry C. Andrews, Mr. Henry E. Howland, Mr. and Mrs. E. Ludlow, Mrs. P. M. Ludlow, Mr. William Henry K. Bull, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Humphrey, Mr. S. P. Pope, Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Owens, Mr. Howard Mansfield, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Anderson, Mr. W. B. Anderson, Mr. Charles E. Miller, Mr. A. L. Train, and Miss Train.

The New York Times

Published: June 13, 1882

Copyright © The New York Times