

California Is Nuptial Scene

Mrs. Rosalyn Etem, former Lead-Deadwood resident, now of Costa Mesa, Calif. and Charles W. Thacker, Garden Grove, Calif., were united in marriage the morning of Oct. 4 at the Garden Grove Community Church. Officiating was the Rev. Harold Leestma.

When she was escorted to the garden altar by her son, Maurice Etem, Huntington Beach, Calif., Mrs. Etem wore a turquoise suit with white accessories and a yellow rose corsage. Attendants were Mrs. Maurice Etem and Don Williams, son-in-law of Thacker.

Standing in a semicircle beside the couple in addition to the matron of honor and best man were the groom's daughters, Miss Don Williams and Mrs. Kenneth Smith and her husband.

After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. M. Etem were hosts at a luncheon honoring the newlyweds in the Disneyland Hotel.

Following a two-week wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Thacker will be at home at Space 36, 1991 Newport, Costa Mesa. The groom is a semiretired professional chef.
