

MILDRED DIMICK

COKEVILLE, Wyo. — Mildred Brooks Dimick, 75, former Pocatello resident, died Monday in Salt Lake City following an extended illness.

She was born Dec. 5, 1910 in Pocatello, to Fred David and Margaret Vandermuss Brooks. Her family moved to Cokeville when she was five years old.

She attended Cokeville schools until her junior year when she married Milford Petersen and moved to Ovid. They later divorced. She later returned to Cokeville where she had since resided.

She married Kenneth Dimick in 1939 in Randolph, Utah.

She was noted for her cooking talent, and she worked for Haggerty's in the cafe shortly after returning to Cokeville. Most of her life was spent cooking for hunting camps, forest crews and local cafes and she was often called on to cook for various organizations in the community, including the Catholic Altar Society of which she was an active member.

Another of her talents was raising flowers. She was an active member of St. Dominic's Catholic Church in Cokeville.

She is survived by one son, Everett Peterson, Star Valley; four grandchildren; and 10 great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband Kenneth and one brother, Bud Brooks.

Funeral Mass will be held Friday at 10:30 a.m. at St. Dominic's Catholic Church in Cokeville. A separate funeral service will be held at 1 p.m. Friday in the Cokeville LDS chapel. Holy Rosary will be recited Thursday at 6 p.m. at Matthews Mortuary in Montpelier and friends may call that evening after the rosary until 8 p.m. and also at the LDS chapel in Cokeville on Friday from noon until 1 p.m. Burial will be in the Cokeville Cemetery.
