

ELIZABETH KOCH

GREENFIELD, Mass. — Elizabeth S. (Streeter) Koch, 82, a resident of 140 Leyden Road, died Monday at the Franklin Medical Center.

Born in Greenfield Aug. 8, 1906, she was the daughter of Leslie H. and Jennie (Mosely) Streeter.

She attended Greenfield public schools and graduated from Bay Path Junior College. She was employed for many years at the treasurers' offices at Smith College and University of Massachusetts at Amherst. She most recently worked before her retirement as a bookkeeper for Burniske Oil Co.

She married her husband of 49 years, Rudolph W. Koch, on April 22, 1939.

Mrs. Koch enjoyed knitting and crafts and was an avid gardner. She was a 50-year member of the Second Congregational Church.

In addition to her husband she is survived by one son, Leslie Koch of Hopkinton; one daughter, Jane Rozak of Dalton; six grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be Thursday, Feb. 2, from the Second Congregational Church at 2 p.m. with the interim minister, the Rev. Douglas Clark, officiating. Burial will follow in Green River Cemetery.

Calling hours will be Wednesday from the McCarthy Funeral Home, 36 Bank Row, Greenfield, from 7 to 9 p.m.

Clipped By:

LindaReinfeld

Thu, Aug 12, 2021