

J. S. Rectenwald Dies, State Road Engineer

DANSVILLE, Oct. 13—J. Schultz Rectenwald, 52, died unexpectedly this afternoon (Oct. 13, 1957) at the Highland Hospital in Rochester. Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Richard Lemen and a granddaughter of Dansville; a sister, Mrs. Adelaide Monroe of Wayland; a brother, George of Dansville.

He was employed as an engineer with the new York State Highway Dept. He was a member of St. Paul's United Lutheran Church of Dansville and Phoenix Lodge 115, F&AM. He was treasurer of the Dansville Fire Department for over 30 years. He was a member of the Dansville Fish & Game Club. He was zoning officer for the Village of Dansville.

Friends may call at the Baird Funeral Home in Dansville. Services will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday. Burial will be in Greenmount Cemetery. The Rev. Richard Olson will officiate. There will be Masonic services at 2 p.m. Tuesday at the funeral home.

Obituary for J. Schultz Rectenwald (Aged 52)

Clipped By:

LindaReinfeld
Sat, Dec 12, 2020